

Michael Jackson

KING OF POP
A CELEBRATION
OF THE LIFE OF MICHAEL JACKSON
1958-2009

To the world Michael is an icon.
To me Michael is family.
He will forever live in all of our hearts.
I miss you Mike and I love you.

Dunk

Michael, I recall you sitting on a chair in your bedroom staring at the television watching the 1980 Grammy Awards show, crying to me because you had won only one Grammy Award and you said, 'Watch La Toya, my next record I'm going to sell more records and win more Grammys than anyone in the history of music... I will be the biggest and the greatest entertainer of all time'.

You began to write that dream all throughout your bedroom, on the walls, on the mirrors, in your books and anywhere else you could find space. You started working much harder, creating sounds in songs that the world had never heard before, you started dancing until you would literally collapse. When most artists were trying to learn how to sing and do a two-step, you were singing and moonwalking. You took your dream to a much higher lever and turned it into a reality, a reality of over 100 million records sold on that next album, 'Thriller'. You thereafter continued to turn every one of your dreams into reality, while inspiring the world and becoming the most recognizable, the most well-known and the most loved person in the entire world.

You've lived your dream, you've proven to us all that if you believe, you will achieve; you believed, and oh my, did you achieve! What you've accomplished is astounding – no one can ever possibly follow! Your dreams were so incredible that it made the world a much happier place to live, and the world wouldn't let you rest because they demanded your dreams to transport them to another place!

You've done your work here Michael, you've entertained us for decades and there's nothing else that you can prove or accomplish here on earth. You taught us how to laugh, how to love and how to believe. God has now called for you to come home, collect your wings and to fulfill your demands in Heaven and continue your magic amongst the angels.

Mike I love you deeply and I can't wait to see you perform again.

Keep the magic going!!!

La Toya

Michael, your legacy will last forever. You are a true genius and you will be missed deeply by all who knew you and those who never met you.

I'm so blessed to have known such a wonderful person and I look forward to seeing you again in Heaven.

Thank you for the many years of memories!

Starting out in Gary, we were brothers who enjoyed music; we had no idea of what was to come. My memories of us as a family? Michael running through the house - no one could catch Michael, he was always fast on his feet. I watched as we moved from Gary to Los Angeles, from singing in clubs to filling stadiums. My brother Michael was always pushing it to the sky, as far as it could go. Michael put his heart and soul into his music, his family and into his work of always helping others.

My brother developed a shoe that showed resistance to gravity. What a man! Michael gave so much to the world; people didn't understand his pain when the world started taking it back. He built a home that would provide a place where children who were ill and paralyzed could come find peace, enjoy the outside air and watch movies.

My brother is in the Guinness Book of World Records for giving large portions of donations to numerous charities. He gave and he never thought twice. I watched the light in Michael's eyes fade as he faced trials and tribulations for being misunderstood. Michael kept going with a smile and a grace of simply keeping what he stands for and believes in. Michael has left me and my brothers a legacy, a part of us being a part of history. I am proud to be his big brother, I am proud to have watched his talent succeed above all!

I love him. Michael is with me always. We will carry the light and make the light shine again for Michael and the world. Tito

A full-page photograph of Michael Jackson in a dramatic pose. He is wearing a white t-shirt, a black sequined jacket, and a black fedora. He is holding a long, thin, light-colored object (possibly a cane or a prop) vertically in front of him. His mouth is open in a wide, intense expression, and his eyes are looking upwards. The background is dark with some horizontal light streaks, suggesting a stage or a studio setting.

I love you so much and I'm looking forward to the time when I'll see you again on Earth (John 5:28-29). I know this is something you not only cherished but talked about with others. Then the world will be a paradise, a place free from corruption and poverty. Then the world will be a place of true peace and serenity. This is what we were all looking to, then I'll see you again. Sleep in peace, because as the bible says, you're just asleep, and I look forward to life without end at last. (Psalms 37:29)

A photograph of Michael Jackson in a red, ribbed jacket, looking directly at the camera. In the background, several zombie-like faces are visible, some with pale skin and dark eye sockets, others with more grotesque features. The lighting is dramatic, with a bright light source in the upper right.

You have filled my life with knowledge, laughter, happiness and love. To the world 'Michael Jackson' is the greatest. To me, Uncle Michael is even better.

I love you beyond life,

Taryll

You taught me how to smile. You taught me how to dream. You taught me how to live. Uncle Michael,
I will always cherish all of our special moments and blissful time together. I love you so much.

I met Michael Jackson during a very dark period. The forces of evil were trying to take him away from us. The man I came to know was a kind, gentle soul who wanted to heal the world through music, art, love and decency. He succeeded. It was an honor and a privilege to defend him.

Rest in peace, Michael.

Thomas A. Mesereau, Jr.

Dear Michael, the last 17 years with you I will never forget. Thank you for your love your understanding. Thank you for entrusting me with your precious children, my love for them will never waver. Through the peaks and the valleys, we laughed hard, and we cried but through it all you taught me to always rise above it. I miss you so much but I know that you are in a better place. Rest in Peace, my friend.

With love, Grace Rwaramba

Uncle Michael, in the short time we got to walk, you left the impression of love, passion and compassion for the ones who can't, or have not been blessed. Patience and Love even though the ignorance of the world, I saw you stand alone, as one man, a father, loving heart open to your family and the world. I say one man because you were, and always will be, my uncle, my loving uncle and true definition of a man. Always Loving You, always... Until we meet again! May your Soul finally rest on this Journey, Siggy! Rubba 07/01/09

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Perhaps you sent a lovely card
Or sat quietly in a chair;
Perhaps you sent a beautiful spray
If so we saw it there;
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words
As any friend could say;
Perhaps you were not there at all,
Just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts
In your special way,
May God's many blessings be yours from day to day.

THANK YOU FROM THE JACKSON FAMILY

Bye for now, The Hayvenhurst Five – Janice, Jesus, Abel, Jorge & Olinda

Dearest Michael, how do we even begin to tell you what you meant to us?
What a beautiful journey we had with you. You touched so many lives and we are honored to have been one of them. How blessed are we to have been given the opportunity to see your dream of Neverland grow and flourish. What a lesson we learned in compassion, generosity and love from you.

Because of you, the sound of children's laughter, the whistle of a steam train or the whirl of a carousel, will always bring a smile to our hearts. You will forever be felt in the gentle breezes rustling through the trees, in the trickling of the streams and in the stillness of the valley of Neverland.

Thank you for allowing us to be a part of your dream. The enormity of what you gave and created leaves us speechless. May you sing with the Angels above, our love forever,
Your Neverland Family
